Hello Aggies,

Fall semester is just a month and a half away – we hope your summer has been energizing! As we continue with virtual work and social distancing, many aggies are seeking job/internships opportunities. There are many opportunities available to you! From government positions to fully remote positions, there is a lot of explore.

Do you have an interview coming up? Your Career Coach is available for mock interviews! You can also read through this guide to common interview questions from TheMuse.com.

Find other great articles on TheMuse.com for some great perspective on a wide range of professional development topics.

Remember, the team at Career Services is still be working at full capacity remotely creating virtual events, connecting students with employers, and helping students adjust to their new normal. Your career coach is available for appointments.

Take a look at the Virtual Career Center to help you stay on track with your goals. https://career-services.usu.edu/virtual-support/index

Virtual Events

Power Up Series: Owning Your Career with Jeff Roberts from Savage Services (https://usu.joinhandshake.com/events/523915)

Come Build Your Network for Future Internships and Jobs during the time of Covid-19! (https://usu.joinhandshake.com/events/513671)

Day in the Life of AmeriCorps Service
(https://usu.joinhandshake.com/events/515693)

Virtual Learning

Maximize Your AGGIE Handshake Account

Have you used your AGGIE Handshake account much? There is so much to explore! Just in the past 10 days +400 employers have added job postings with over 1,000 postings just in Utah. From part time, full time, to internships, there are great opportunities for you to check out. Quick tips:

- Complete your profile
- Utilize the Job tab AND the Employer tab to discover opportunities
- Keep an eye on the Events tab to continue your professional development through the summer
Curious about what companies are hiring?
The job/internship search might feel daunting during this time as we hear so many companies are laying off their employees. However, there are a lot of companies still hiring - from IT, sales, customer services, manufacturing and so much more! Don’t slow down on your job/internship search. Employers still really want to talk to YOU! Check out this live COVID-19 Hiring Tracker for a list of companies hiring and laying off.

Federal hiring is occurring
If you haven’t thought about obtaining employment through the federal government, consider it for internships and jobs after graduation. Take a look at usajobs.gov. Explore their open positions and check out their virtual webinars.

LinkedIn Learning - 1 month of free courses to develop new skills!

Learn in-demand skills with over 14,000+ online courses taught by real-world professionals. The 1st month is free! Take some time this summer and develop a few new skills that employers are looking for.

The team at Career Services is working at full capacity remotely creating virtual events, connecting students with employers, and helping students adjust to their new normal. Please make an appointment with your career coach to have a conversation.

Keep up the good work!